GENERAL INFORMATION
Performance #2: This afternoon’s performance was very successful! It was a quiet audience, but still incredibly engaged. Some highlights from the show were both Beggar stories, Baxter’s portrayal of Duck, and Peacock’s love of her feet instead of just her tail. There was a sense of bewilderment when Johnny Cash came on. One of the donors who attended the donor rehearsal last month attended today’s performance and was smiling ear to ear during Johnny Cash! This donor raved about the show to an usher immediately following. Group 56 received a standing ovation for Performance #2! Performance #3: This evening’s audience brought more audible enthusiasm, which pushed the actors through the second performance of the day. Fortunately, Unfortunately got a big laugh tonight on Owl’s line about the haystack! During both shows today, the beginning of Josh’s breakout was greeted with laughter, seemingly out of not knowing how to react. However, his breakout continues to leave people speechless by the end. Thanks to the participation of the 2nd and 4th years in the audience, the run was loaded with energy and applause, concluding with a huge standing ovation!!
